Golden Glow

I often wonder...

why it feels so hard to make friends as an adult.

I'm an introvert by nature and sometimes find it overwhelming to make new friends. In fact, most of my closest friendships are with people who reached out to me first. It's not that I don't want to make friends, I just tend to overthink it. Can you relate?

The truth is many of us are looking for connection and friendship. In fact, recent studies have found that one in two people report feeling lonely. That's a huge reminder that we're not the only ones longing for community.

As crafters, we have the power to change this! Every time we sit down to make something, we have the opportunity to open our circle and welcome someone in. Crafting together takes the pressure off—it gives us something to make with our hands, and plenty to laugh about along the way.

As you look through these pages, I hope you look for ways to create, share, and connect. Try something new . . . and invite someone along. Because when we create together, we're part of something bigger, and including others can make all the difference.

Shelli's faves

Some collections just make you smile, and the Beautiful Ordinary Life Suite Collection and coordinating scrapbooking products (p. 28–31) did the moment I saw it. It's an all-in-one collection for cards, packaging, and scrapbooking, and it instantly made my must-have list!

I usually craft with layers and details, but I'm loving how satisfying simple projects can be. The Banner Sayings Bundle (p. 41) makes it easy to add quick banners and just-right sentiments in seconds.

I can't wait to see what others create—I know I'll be inspired all over again!

Purchasers of Stampin' Up! products are authorized to sell hand-stamped artwork made with our copyrighted designs only in accordance with Stampin' Up!'s Angel Policy, a copy of which can be found on the Stampin' Up! website at stampinup.com/angel-policy or obtained from a Stampin' Up! demonstrator. Permission is not granted to mechanically reproduce stamped images.

ORDERING

All products in this catalog may be purchased through a Stampin' Up! demonstrator. Demonstrators are independent contractors and are not employees of Stampin' Up! To help your demonstrator ensure accuracy in taking your order, always include item number, description, and price of each item ordered. Your demonstrator will provide you with two copies of your order. Please retain these copies for your personal records. If ordering online, you may print your receipt to keep for your personal records. You have a right to cancel your order within three business days of placing it (five business days of placing the order in Alaska; 15 business days of placing the order for customers age 65 or older in North Dakota). Ask your demonstrator for more details.

For specific details regarding delivery, product guarantees, exchanges, and refunds as well as a special limitation that may apply on discontinued or defective products, please see the Stampin' Up! website at stampinup.com/orders-exchanges.

What Can Your Demonstrator Do for You?

What exactly does a demonstrator do?

I share fun ways to craft, help you pick the right supplies, and we make things together. No pressure—just creativity.

So, what makes shopping with you different?

I get to know your style, share ideas, answer questions, and make sure the experience is creative and fun.

What's the best thing about being a demonstrator?

I love to craft on my own time, connect with friends, and get the opportunity to earn a modest supplemental income.

Do you need experience to start?

This makes crafting so much more personal.

It really does—community, creativity, and perks.

Not at all! If you enjoy creating, you already have what it takes.

Want to share your creativity and earn along the way? Ask your demonstrator or go online to join as a demonstrator.
